

CHEIRON

The International Society for the History of the
Behavioral and Social Sciences

Tenth Annual Meeting

June 2, 3, 4, 1978

Wellesley College, Wellesley MASSACHUSETTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The work of the Program Committee was facilitated by many individuals. We wish to extend our special thanks to the following:

- David O. Lyon, Chairperson of the Department of Psychology, Western Michigan University, for his generous support;
- Elizabeth Goodman, John Popplestone, Marion McPherson, and John Burnham for assistance and advice;
- Robert C. Davis, of the 1977 Program Committee, who served as consultant;
- Lorenz J. Finison and Laural Furumoto, who served as Co-Chairpersons of the Local Arrangements Committee;
- Margaret Lafferty and her staff of the Office of Special Events, Wellesley College;
- The Departments of Anthropology, History, Psychology, and Sociology of Wellesley College for sponsoring the reception;
- And especially those authors and referees whose intellectual expertise constitutes the Aristotelian Final, Formal, Efficient and Material causes of this conference.

The Program Committee:

Paul T. Moutjoy, Chairman
Wolfgang G. Bringmann
Robert C. Davis
Lorenz J. Finison
Laural Furumoto

The Tenth Annual Meeting of Cheiron is held in cooperation with the Office of Special Events, Wellesley College, Wellesley, Maine, USA.

All sessions will be held in Room 277 of the Science Center.

CHEIRON: *The Tenth Annual Meeting of
The International Society for the History of the Behavioral and Social Sciences*

THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1978

6:00 - 10:00 PM REGISTRATION--Munger Hall

8:00 - 10:00 PM RECEPTION--Munger Hall

FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 1978

8:30 - 10:00 AM EXPERIMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY

Chair: Donna M. Cone, Department of Mental Health
Retardation, and Hospitals.

"John B. Watson's Relation to Edwin G. Boring," Cedric A. Larson, Hicksville, New York.

"The 'Crisis of Experimentalism' in the Twenties: E. G. Boring and His Uses of Historiography," John M. O'Donnell, University of Pennsylvania. * Good

"The Continuity-Discontinuity Debate in Learning Theory 1929-1948," Anne Law, University of New Hampshire.

10:00 - 10:30 AM COFFEE AND WELCOME

10:30 - 12:00 NOON INSTINCT, BEHAVIORISM, AND COMPARATIVE PSYCHOLOGY

Chair: Rand Evans, Texas A & M University.

"Animal Instinct and Intelligence in British Natural Theology (1802-1839): Some Sources of Darwin's Theory of Behavior,"
Robert J. Richards, University of Chicago.

"Background for Behaviorism: John Broadus Watson and Patterns of Social Mobility in Greenville, South Carolina," Kerry W. Buckley, Wellesley College.

"Charles Henry Turner (1867-1923): America's First Black Comparative Psychologist and Animal Behaviorist," Thomas C. Cadwallader, Indiana State University. Christopher Joyce

12:00 - 1:00 PM LUNCH

1:00 - 3:00 PM SYMPOSIUM: FICTION AS A MEDIUM FOR ADVANCING PSYCHOLOGICAL IDEAS

Chair: John A. Popplestone, Archives of the History of American Psychology.

"The Castle of the Body: A Medium for Advancing Psychological Knowledge in Elizabethan England, with Special Reference to The Faerie Queene, II," Douglas J. Wurtele, Carleton University.

"Walter Charleton, the Atomic Hypothesis, and Sex," A. Bryan Laver, Carleton University.

"Children in Fiction and Popular Psychology. Strawwelpeter: A Nineteenth Century Example," E. June Rogers, Carleton University.

"Disciplinary Ideals in the Social Sciences: The Utopias of Galton, Ellis, and Tarde," Jill Morawski, Carleton University.

7:00 - 9:00 PM SPECIAL INTEREST GROUP DISCUSSIONS

A. Leader: Ben Harris, Radford College.

Title: Use of the Freedom of Information Act in Researching Contemporary Issues in the Behavioral Sciences.

B. Leader: John H. Stanfield, University of Texas at San Antonio.

Title: The Historical Role Philanthropic Foundations Have Played in the Development of Empirical Social Sciences.

C. Leader: Jack Nusan Porter and Glenn Jacobs, University of Massachusetts.

Title: Editing Historical Journals.

D. Leader: John M. O'Donnell, University of Pennsylvania.

Title: Professionalization: The Socialization of a Discipline?

SATURDAY, JUNE 3, 1978

8:30 - 10:00 AM PHILOSOPHY AND HISTORY

Chair: Frank Hardesty, City College of CUNY.

"The Intentions and Heritage of Descartes and Locke: Toward an Understanding of the Moral Basis of Modern Psychology," David E. Leary, University of New Hampshire.

* reprint

"William James' Psychology of Will (1870-1898): From the Feeling of Effort to the Law of Effect," William R. Woodward, University of New Hampshire.

"Psychology and Philosophy: Toward a Realignment, 1905-1935," Lawrence D. Smith, University of New Hampshire.

10:00 - 10:30 AM COFFEE

10:30 - 12:00 NOON POTPOURRI: ILLUSIONS, MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONS, AND HISTORIOGRAPHY

Chair: Marion W. McPherson, Archives of the History of American Psychology.

"Illusions and Counter-Illusions in Greek Temples," Noel W. Smith, State University of New York.

"Radical Currents in the Mental Health Professions: The Benjamin Rush Society (1944-1952)," Ben Harris, Radford College.

"Current Historiography of Psychology Around the World: A Progress Report," Josef Brozek, Lehigh University.

12:00 - 1:00 PM LUNCH

1:00 - 3:00 PM SOCIAL SCIENCES

Chair: Robert C. Davis, Case Western Reserve University.

"Relativism and Modernism in Sumner's Folkways: An Interpretive Essay," Donald C. Bellomy, Harvard University.

"The Emergence of German Urban Sociology, 1900-1910," Woodruff D. Smith, The University of Texas at San Antonio.

"The Early Impact of Freud on Anthropology and Sociology in the United States: W. F. Ogburn, Alfred Kroeber, and Edward Sapir," Joan T. Mark, Harvard University.

"Social Science Attitudes Toward Women Workers, 1870-1970," Dorothy C. Wertz, Westport Point, Massachusetts.

6:30 PM BANQUET AND BUSINESS MEETING

SUNDAY, JUNE 4, 1978

9:00 - 11:00 AM

SYMPOSIUM: THE "SCIENTIZING" AND "RESPECTABILITIZING" OF SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY.

Chair: Michael Sokal, Worcester Polytechnic Institute.

"Prolegomena for a History of Social Psychology: Some Hypotheses Concerning its Emergence in the 20th Century and its Raison D'Etire," Erika Apfelbaum, University of Paris.

"Reactions to Watson's Behaviorism: The Early Years," Franz Samelson, Kansas State University.

"Forty Years of Frustration and Aggression: Some Historical Notes on a Long-Lived Hypothesis," Ian Lubek, University of Guelph.

Discussant: Leon Rappaport, Kansas State University.